REVIEW

In week 4 of The Walking Wise, Pastor Michael talks about the importance of living wisely and how the wise show their wisdom through their actions, with a deep respect for God. We see how important it is to apply wisdom in everyday life, encouraging us to stand out by being humble, morally upright and to avoid being prideful, arrogant, or speaking in hurtful ways. The sermon encourages us to seek transformation and spiritual renewal through a relationship with Jesus, leading to a life of righteousness and Holiness.

DIGGING DEEPER

1. Read Proverbs 1:7 and Proverbs 8:12-13. How does your reverent fear of God influence your attitude towards things that are considered evil in this world?

---

---

---

---

2. What does it mean to have pride, arrogance, and perverse speech? Why does God hate these things?

---

---

---

---

---

3. What effect do these things have in our lives when we participate in them?

---

---

---

---

---

4. Read Romans 6:19-23. Aside from holiness and eternal life, what benefits come from being a slave to righteousness vs. being a slave to sin?

---

---

---

---

---

5. If death is the 'pay-check' for working for sin, why do we continue to work for sin and not receive the gift God is giving us which is eternal life?

---

---

---

---

---

6. Read Romans 12:1-2. What does it look like to offer our bodies as living sacrifices?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7. How can we resist conforming to the patterns of this world and be transformed by rebuilding how we think about things?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

TAKE IT HOME

1. What is something that we can change or do differently this week to avoid pride, arrogance, or hurtful speech?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. How can being a slave to righteousness impact our daily choices and behaviours?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. How can we practically apply Romans 12:1-2 in our lives?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---
